READING BY AMERICAN NOVELIST

JOSH WEIL

All of Josh Weil's books received lots of praise from The New York Times. His collection of novellas The New Valley (2009) was reviewed enthusiastically, his The Great Glass Sea (2014) was called a "fascinating debut novel," and the author's Age of Perpetual Light (2017) was characterized as a "brilliant new collection" of short stories.

All of Weil's books have been translated into German. Tonight, however, he will read to us in English. Everybody is welcome to join us.
